.....Advertise on KCDVTF.org.....

The KCDVTF website gets 10,000 hits each month! We want to offer our local business owners, an opportunity to reach out to the community by advertising on our site. Your donation benefits the cause AND benefits your business by getting more exposure! This is our offer to you, promise to donate an annual set amount of at least $100 or a percent of your business profit and we will post your name/business logo and, if you have a website, a link. You can either send us an email at kcdvtf@silverlink.net or use the online donation page at the website to make your financial commitment. Of course, if you want to donate and do not want the publicity, be sure to let us know that too. Together, we can create a community free from Domestic Violence. www.kcdvtf.org

KITSAP COUNTY
Domestic Violence
TASK FORCE

Mission

To create a community free from domestic violence.

Goals

To promote victim safety and perpetrator accountability the KCDVTF will:

- Educate the community about domestic violence;
- Establish and maintain a Coordinated Community Response;
- Encourage and support agencies that work with domestic violence;
- Maintain information regarding Kitsap County domestic violence resources;
- Advocate for legislative progress in issues as they relate to domestic violence;
- Develop funding resources to maintain the KCDVTF and to support the efforts of our community;
- Collect and maintain data on domestic violence in the community.

Bridges to Success

"Bridges to Success" is a five-week FREE program for those who have primarily been homemakers and have lost their source of financial support due to divorce, or the death or disability of their spouse. The classes explore career and educational options and resources to make the transition to economic self-sufficiency. We have just received a grant for the next two years and will now offer classes and services year-round! The summer session begins July 7 and ends August 7. Contact Julie Johnson at 475.7557 to
